

Sensei Rob Castro was born in Toronto, Ontario Canada in 1988. He has been brought up as a karate student, training under his father Sensei Rui Castro and Sensei Takemasa Okuyama of the International Karate Association. He grew up assisting his father in classes at their dojo in Brampton, Ontario before teaching his own classes as an adult. In 2019 Sensei Rob Castro and his father opened a new dojo in Brampton where they continue to teach.

In his former career Sensei Castro was the general manager of a large private law enforcement company based in Toronto. He was able to travel throughout the province organizing large events and working with people of all walks of life insuring that their life and property were safe and secure.